

Pat Michaels

Laura Lee Beetle bred the Hanoverian Saladine STC, by Sir Gregory and out of Request. Owned by Stephen Fulton and David Ziegler, Saladine was the top Four-Year-Old Dressage Horse in the U.S. for 2020.

GOP Tribute, nick-named Reagan, is a Thoroughbred/American Paint cross bred and owned by Carol S. Spicer Nair. He's by Along Came Jones and out of Grand Old Paint.

Hilltop Farm's Hanoverian Louisville HT is by Lord Leatherdale and out of Unicum.

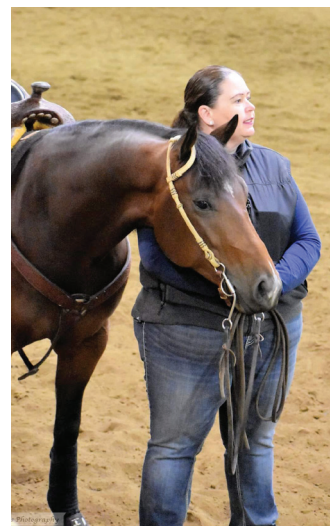

A true family horse, the 2015 Maryland Hunt Cup winner Raven's Choice (Dance With Ravens x Millashand) was bred by the late Cary W. Jackson and is owned by his wife Ann Jackson. He is currently ridden by Ann's daughter Win Lewis and niece Sophie Cospers (pictured) in the hunt field.

John and Margaret Almond bred the Welsh Pony Loafers Lodge Golden Goose (Rosmel's Dressed In Scarlet x Loafers Lodge Goldfinch) owned by Melissa Fetterolf

The 2019 Maryland Sprint winner Taco Supream is racing well this season for owners Big Bertha Stables and Stormy Stable, LLC. The El Padrino gelding is out of Barouchka and was bred by Ann Biggs Jackson.

Breeder and owner Dana Graff is pictured here with GoinCommandoInTheSno. The Quarter Horse is by Dana's stallion Commandalena out of one of her mares, Sno Smart.