

SPOTLIGHT ON MARYLAND-BREDS

Allegra Q is a Hanoverian mare owned by Hilltop Farm Inc. and bred by Suzanne Quarles. She is by Anhaltiner E and out of EM Fifth Avenue Q.

Shelby Langlois owns and competes the New Forest/Arabian mare Pipe Creek Pebbles (Wicked Courtjester x Lightening). The mare was bred in New Windsor at the McNemar's Pipe Creek Farm.

Paula Stapleton nicknamed her two-year-old Quarter Horse Wicked while her AQHA registered name is pending because she's mischievous. The filly was bred by Bob LaPorta and is by the stallion Inferno 66 out of the mare Ms Jessie Boom.

Severn Bay Rum is a Welsh Mountain Pony by Severn Merrymaker and out of Severn Ciara. He was bred by Severn Oaks Farm and is owned by Mary I. Benedict.

Ann McKay bred this Anglo-Arab named Good Juji-Juniper by Admiral Harnly and out of Quest. She is currently owned by Sutton Wetcher.

MacCrimmon Campbelton is a Highland Pony, which is an endangered breed with fewer than 100 ponies in all of North America. The breed originated in Scotland. "Cam" was bred by MacCrimmon Stud LLC in Harwood and is by MacCrimmon Andrew out of Rockcake of Whitefield. He is owned by breeders Kathy and Paul Simpson.

Send your Maryland-bred photos to editor@equiery.com

David Butts of Union Bridge bred the Thoroughbred Runsonstills, who is now owned and competed by Margaret McKelvy. "Stilts" is by Cherokee's Boy out of Oh So Fine.

Bred by Louisa Emerick in Fair Hill, this combined driving pony, Lanie's Lad is owned by Kim Stover. He is a Connemara/Thoroughbred by Ard Celtic Ard and out of Tri-Creek Greystone B'Lanna.