

NATIONAL & MISC AWARD WINNERS

Shane Rux Photography

Darrell Ireland of Sunderland showed the American Quarter Horse filly Maybelleen to win the American Quarter Horse Association Select World Championship Weanling Filly title. Maybelleen is owned by Anthony Bladen, also of Sunderland. The filly also won the AQHA Amateur Reserve World Championship and the AQHA Reserve World Champion Filly title.

Send your competition photos to The Equiry year-round for Out & About!

Email editor@equiry.com by the 10th of the month.

Since 1968 Lynda Arnold has been involved with horses in a variety of ways from horse showing to trail riding. From 2008 to 2013 she was the Horse Show Manager for the Carroll County Western Circuit, which holds its shows at the Carroll County Equestrian Center. She has been a member of the Carroll County Equestrian Council since 2008 and has been the Equestrian Center Manager since 2015. For all of her valuable contributions of her time, skills and talents, the Carroll County Equestrian Council named Arnold the 2020 Volunteer of the Year.

Jaelyn Burke rode the six year old OTTB Chance of Liffort to win the Combo division of the Maryland Thoroughbred Eventing Program. The Combo division takes scores from both Recognized and Unrecognized events in the series. This past season, they competed at Beginner Novice. Chance of Liffort (JC name: Honeyfields) raced 16 times before being retired. Burke purchased him a few weeks after his last race in 2018.

Owned by Theresa Grogan and ridden by trainer Christine Betz, Crescendos Allegra was the top USDF All Breeds Half Arabian in the Open Prix St. Georges and Open Intermediate I division. The mare also earned championship honors in the USEF Region 15 Half Arabian and Half/Anglo Arabian Dressage FEI Combined Level. In addition, she was the 2020 East Coast PSG Champion, I-1 Open Champion and High Score FEI Horse winner.

Natalie Garner's Guaranteed Good Asset was the WDAA National Reserve Champion Basic 2 horse. They also earned sixth place in Basic Horsemanship at the WDAA World Show.

Kudos to Katherine Bounds who earned her USDF Bronze Medal in 2020 with scores from riding her own Unlimited.

Negro (pictured), owned by Van Olst Horses and standing at Hilltop Farm in Colorado finished the 2020 season as the USEF Dressage Sire of the Year Reserve Champion. Contucci and Royal Prince, both owned by Hilltop Farm were ranked ninth and 13th respectively.