

SPOTLIGHT ON MARYLAND-BREDS

Charlene Polk

Wynnfield Governor in a 2020 Standardbred bred by Pam Polk in Berlin. He's by the Maryland stallion Wynnfield Scamp and out of Wynnfield Noelle.

Audi, by Sir Sinclair and out of Priceless, is a KWPN owned by Emily Donaldson and bred by Nancy Murray of Fair Hill Farm in Elkton.

This Spotted Saddle Horse named Jazzy's Spotted Cab (L&R Jazz Combo x Sheeze Daisy) is owned by Michael Shier and was bred by Elizabeth Farina at Clarity Riding.

Hanoverian Corsare (Contucci x Vizcaya) is owned and hunted by Genevieve Macfarlane and was bred by Victoria Meyer.

Commanding The Storm is a two-year-old AQHA colt owned and bred by Dana Grafft of Frederick. He is by her stallion Commandalena and out of the mare Dun It Chexily.

Play It As It May, ridden here by Caitlin Owings at the Baltimore County Agriculture Center Show Ring, is owned by Out Foxed Farm. He is a Thoroughbred by Fantastical and out of Light Song and was bred by Eric Long.

Send your Maryland-bred photos to editor@equiery.com

The Thoroughbred Fireheart was bred by Carol Ann Kay and raced until 2018. The Friesian Fire mare out of Purloin is now owned by Neil Agate and is a polo pony. They are pictured in Lexington, Kentucky at the 2019 Retired Racehorse Project Thoroughbred Makeover.

San Miguel (Saintly Obsession x PL Apache) is a two-year-old ISR/Oldenburg gelding owned by Katrina Janes and bred by Gabrielle Cottone.

The Shire Bloomsbury Sir Alec (Cowslane Concorde x Whitefeather Lady Di) celebrated his 25th birthday in June 2020. He is owned and bred by Karla Stoner at Bloomsbury Forge.

Alexis Owings

Stephanie Torres