

IN THIS PRINT EDITION

Features

Crossword Puzzle	31
Equine End of Life Options Guide.....	32
Farm Fix-Up Guide	16
Horses & The Environment	19
Out & About on Social Media	49, 56
Solar Survey Results.....	21

Columns & Directories

Greener Pastures Roll Call	55
Life & Times of Marylanders	55
MHC Government Relations	41
MHC Updates & Letter from the Publisher.....	7
MHC Industry Professionals	50
News & Views	11
Out & About	36
Spotlight on Maryland-breds	52

Buying & Selling

Advertiser Index	58
Adoption Option.....	54
Classifieds	27
Real Estate	43
Service Directory	38
Trainers & Instructors	57

EQUIERY.COM

Home

Breaking News
Current Digital Edition
Facebook Stories
Banner Advertisers

Resources

Archives of Articles
Events & Shows
Equiery Distributors
Equiery Photographers
Farm Fix-Up Directory
Hay & Straw Directory
Lessons & Boarding
Maryland Stallion Directory

THIS MONTH'S COVER

Pictured on this month's cover is the two-year-old MacCrimmon Campbeltown, a Highland Pony bred by MacCrimmon Stud in Harwood. Native to Scotland, Highland Ponies are considered an endangered breed with fewer than 100 in all of North America and around 6,000 in the world. MacCrimmon Stud is the only purebred Highland Pony breeders in Maryland! Check out their ad on page 15 of this issue and read more about Highland Ponies on equiery.com!