

Belair Stable Museum

Experience Local Thoroughbred Racing History

Today's Stable Museum highlights the accomplishments of Belair's bloodstock over a 200-year racing legacy.

The Stable was part of the 20th century's famous "Belair Stud Stable," one of the country's premier stables from the 1920's through the 1950's. Belair was home to Gallant Fox (1930) and Omaha (1935) – the only father/son horses to capture Thoroughbred racing's famous Triple Crown Series. In 1955, Belair's Nashua, an incomparable champion, was Horse of the Year.
